Are you excited by the opportunity to be a member of staff in a new free primary school where you can shape the lives of children and staff?

The Griffin Primary School are looking to recruit a Casual Supply Teacher to primarily work in our EYFS classes. You will have the ability to lead engaging activities within a well-planned a stimulating, purposeful learning environment to ensure that all children make good progress in their time with you. The successful candidate will have energy and enthusiasm, encouraging all to do their best and grow professionally. You will be observant and motivated to engage in reflective practice and a researching approach. You will have a passion for play, learning outdoors and indoors, working as a member of a team and will be an effective communicator with an interest in and understanding of child development.

We are looking for someone who:

- Has recent experience of working within an EYFS setting.
- Is passionate about enabling children in the Early Years to fulfil their potential socially and academically.
- Has the enthusiasm and ambition to make our Early Years and outstanding experience for our children.
- Is patient, thoughtful and empathetic.
- Is able to work effectively in a team and to work using your own initiative.

The successful candidate will have:

- Qualified Teacher Status
- A good knowledge/understanding of the Early Years Curriculum
- Experience of working with 2-5 year old children
- Excellent communication skills, both verbally and in writing.

In return we can offer:

- The opportunity to be a casual member of staff at the Griffin Primary School.
- A supportive, motivated team who are committed to improvement; a commitment to staff wellbeing.
- The opportunity to benefit from the expertise of Lawrence Sheriff School and the teaching school hub as part of your ongoing professional development.
